

CODE OF CONDUCT MEMBERS, VISITORS AND OTHERS WHO ENJOY THE CLUB

Swan Yacht Club (SYC) is one of the most innovative Yacht and Power Boat clubs in Western Australia and enjoys a reputation driven by the club values. Membership of SYC is a privilege and carries with it a responsibility to uphold our reputation at every opportunity, and not to engage in conduct that brings the Club and our Members into disrepute or is contrary to the Constitution and By-Laws of SYC.

There are many users of the SYC facility that includes many types of membership. Everyone whether they are a member, members guest, affiliate visitors and stakeholders of SYC have a duty to ensure that they cause no adverse impact on any of these users as a result of their actions at SYC or in the wider environment.

Everyone using the club facility must behave in a manner that facilitates, enhances and ensures the:

1. reputation of socially and environmentally engaged club;
2. friendly and relaxed environment of the SYC;
3. health, safety and comfort of members and staff employed at SYC;
4. enjoyment of the family rich culture at the SYC; and
5. physical property and facilities provided by SYC.

Everyone on our premises shall not engage in conduct that:

1. breaches accepted standards of public behaviour;
2. jeopardises the health and safety of members, staff, and visitors;
3. causes offence to members, staff and visitors;
4. gross disregard to the amenity and enjoyment of members and staff.
5. Intentionally damages, destroys, or lessens the value of the SYC assets;
6. intentionally damages, destroys, or lessens the value of property owned by other club members; or
7. facilitates the publication of material and/or comments (on any platform) that is obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, discriminatory, brand-bashing, hateful, disparaging or unfavourable about the Club (and/or is likely to bring the Club into disrepute or ridicule) and or about any other member including its officers, directors, employees and committee members of the clubs.

Any member bringing the Club into disrepute may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the SYC Constitution and or Bylaws. Any Visitor or Stakeholder breaching this code may be asked to leave the premises immediately.
